

Panchatantra

From grandma's moral lessons through folklore dating 3000 years in time on the greedy crocodiles and the trusting monkey to the jackal who changed colours, literally and metaphorically, leading to his own doom. Panchatantra is a devised physical comedy through mime techniques and live Indian folk music. Indian earthiness is brought to life by four actors and two musicians using spoken word and music with a dholak and harmonium for company without any sets or props, all you need to bring is your imagination and an appetite for fables.

Directed By: RupeshTillu

Language: Hindustani

Time: 50 Minutes

Performed By: KalyanChoudhury, SonaliBhardwaj, Priyanka, Charan, Yash Yogi, NamitKhanna, Amrita Bhagchi

Onstage Musicians: SatishTrivedi (Dholak), NeerajKhushwaha (Harmonium)

Production: Moumita Roy

Devised by: Theatreact Ensemble.

Theatreact is an international theatre ensemble based in Mumbai, India and Stockholm Sweden. Which is a devised physical comedy through mimi techniques and live Indian folk music. Indian earthiness alongwith value based learning is brought to life by four actors and twomusicians using spoken word and music with a dholak and harmonium for company without any sets or props. Children will surely benefit from this experience.